Daphne S. Williams is a native New Yorker, born and raised in the Bronx by parents with southern roots.

She is a Registered Nurse of 23 years, having received her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from Lehman College and Master of Science degree in Nursing from Hunter College. Ms. Williams has been a nurse at the James J. Peters Veterans Administration Medical Center (Bronx VA Hospital) for 19 years, with a clinical background in Medical -Surgical, Critical Care, and Post-Anesthesia Care

Nursing. She is currently working on the administrative side of Nursing in the Quality Management Department at the Bronx VA.

Ms. Williams is known to be a very calm, patient, and very caring nurse. She not only shows compassion for others in the workplace but also transfers this same compassion to her local parish where she serves. She has been a faithful, active member of the Union Grove Missionary Baptist Church (UGMBC) in the Bronx, for the past 30 years, under the leadership of both, the late great Rev. Dr. Fletcher C. Crawford, and under her current Pastor, Rev. Frederick Crawford. Ms. Williams has served in various ministries at UGMBC including Sunday School, the choir, Health Ministry, and presently is the Lead Servant over the Mother Arnetta Crawford Scholarship (M.A.C.S) Ministry of UGMBC, which reached its milestone anniversary of 25 years in 2019.

Ms. Williams' dedication to her church and her employer has been exemplary. She has a great heart and love for all people, and loves to be of help to whomever, whenever and wherever she can.
