My name is Denar Ralph, and I am thirteen years old. I am an eighth-grade student at Mount Saint Michael Academy in the Bronx. Apart from being a student, I am an Entrepreneur, who manages my own business: 'Denar Ralph Origami Floral Arrangements'. I create many different kinds of Origami crafts for banquets, Weddings, Birthdays, Church Events, among others to earn and save for my future college cost. Musically talented, I play several different kinds of musical instruments such as keyboard, piano and Steel Pan.

My biggest accomplishment was in 2017 when I published my first book: "Climbing the Ladder to Success." It is an autobiography written to inspire youths in finding success through self-motivation. Since then, I have had several speaking engagements at Churches, Schools, including radio and TV interviews. My primary message is letting the youths know that they are never too young to become entrepreneurs and achieve success in life. Denar also co-host a radio broadcast, "The Youth Hour of Prayer" every fourth Sunday of each month.

In January 2004, approximately one year before I was born, my father battled with prostate cancer. The Doctor sadly reported to my parents that they will not have another child. Well! Look what God had done! Not only I was born on January 7, 2005, one year later but my Dad was completely healed from prostate cancer. My Secret name is 'Child of Purpose'.

One year ago, when the Island of Barbuda was totally eradicated by hurricane Irma, my fifteen-year-old sister, Kyann and I started a youth/Relief Ministry, Mission-Three-Sixteens Inc. With the support of many faithful contributors, we were able to collect and distribute ten barrels of supplies to the Hurricane Irma relief victims in Antigua and Barbuda December of 2017. While in Antigua on a thirteen days Mission, we were honored by the Prime Minister and the head of the House of Parliament for our relief contribution and dedication to the people of the twin Island.

In all things, my Parents are Ministers of the gospel. God has made no mistake when he called Kyann and myself to also labor in his vineyard at this early age. We are honored and humbled in being God's ambassador.
