

Major Beverly M Briggs USAFR RN BSN
MSN

Beverly Mae Briggs was born in 1950 and raised in Brooklyn, New York. She quit High school in the 11th grade, got married, had twins, and traveled throughout South America and India with her husband. She divorced her husband and went back to school to get her High School GED.

Her nursing journey started in 1976 when she graduated from the Edna McConnell Clark School of Nursing at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center as an LPN. Three years later she joined the United States Air Force Reserves as a Medical Technician. She returned to school to complete her Associate Degree at the Edna McConnell Clark School of Nursing at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center. Beverly continued her nursing journey by returning to school, where she eventually received a Bachelor's Degree from Adelphi University and a Master's Degree from the University of Phoenix.

Beverly worked as a dedicated medical professional well over 40 years. She is proud of the decade of service at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center and Lenox Hill Hospital. Her experience includes working in the private sector as private duty nursing, Medical-Surgical Per-diem nursing, Corporate Nurse, Nursing Supervisor, Nurse Educator, and Hospital Administrator Coordinator.

Beverly served her country during three campaigns in the United States Air Force, Operation Desert Storm, in 1991, Supporting Operation Noble Freedom, and Enduring Iraq Freedom in 2003. She started her military career as an Airman Basic Medical Technician and eventually joined the Nursing Core as a First Lieutenant.

In 2009 Beverly retired from the United States Air Force Nursing Corps after 30 years of service where she received the rank of Major. She presently works at the James J. Peters Veterans Administration Medical Center as a Hospital Administrator Coordinator.

Beverly received a Certificate in Holistic Nursing in August 2019. Her passion is to practice and teach Holistic Nursing and alternative care in modalities such as Aromatherapy, Reiki, and Guided Meditation after retiring from VA Hospital.

Reverend. Reiki Master. Family Constellation Counselor. Death Walker. Holistic Nurse