

Trustee Emma Green Allotta

Emma Green-Allotta, an only child, is a native of Saint Matthews, South Carolina, a long-time residence of the Bronx, and the proud mother of three and the grandmother of four. She attended Public Schools in NYC (Manhattan and Harlem), pursued higher education from State University of New York at the prestigious College Old Westbury with a Bachelor of Art Degree in Liberal Arts, Minor in Sociology. She expanded her education at the Mid-Manhattan Adult Learning Center (Harlem) for computer science, and SUNY Farmingdale, CUNY Bronx Community and Lehman College for Business and Accounting.

Her Christian Life Studies included Bible Doctrine, Evangelism at Bethel Gospel Assembly, the Oral Roberts University, New York School of the Bible, New York Divinity School and Alliance Theological Seminary. She participated with the New York Theological Seminary Women's Programs, Union Theological Restorative Justice Program and Community Affairs Events. She is a long-time member of the American Baptist USA Seminary student database and member of the United Missionary Baptist Association Missionary Women's Auxiliary Ministry. She is a former member of Community Education Council, (2015-2017), member of School District-10 Leadership Team/Bronx, Citywide Educational Council, Parent Empowerment Team, Bronx Federation High School (all under the Department of Education), a member of North West Bronx Clergy Coalition, The Bronx Borough President's Grandparent Advisory Team, Community Voices Heard Organization-Harlem, Greater Harlem Coalition, 28th Precinct Clergy Coalition, Harlem Community Affairs & Harlem Community Development Corporation (Score, Harlem State Office).

Her spiritual work experiences are extensive and include: (2000-2007), founder of "Woman of Destiny Ministry", New York 2000. Co-founder of "Woman in Ministry, Women in Leadership," (Rev. Wendy Kelly-Carter), incorporated in the State of New York, one of the Co-Founder of Pen Pals for Jesus Ministry (2007), and Caleb's Mountain (1998, Daycare/Preschool). She is a former member of the Daughters of Cush Ministry, (1995, Brooklyn, NY). She believes that her life has always been to reach out to women in the body of Christ in the local church and communities at large by encouraging and empowering them to live up to their full potential in the body of Christ.

Missionary Emma Green Allotta has dedicated and committed her faithful service to the community of the Greater Calvary Baptist Church-Harlem for more than 50 years under the leadership of posthumous pastors, present Pastor Rev. Dr. Stephan P. McKinney. She served on the Board of Trustee for 35 years, is currently Chairperson since 2009, and Missionary Ministry Servant Leader for many years.

She exemplifies her gifts and talents in the body of Christ with workshops, conferences, mentoring programs, preaching/platform services, and exposing new talented preachers. Some memorable events are: Bethany BC-Brooklyn NY 2000,2001-Women's Retreat, St. Paul Methodist-2008-Women's Retreat, and Butler Memorial United Methodist Church-Bronx NY-Girls Mentoring Program

Emma Green-Allotta career spans more than 35 years. After working in retail at Bloomingdales as the Custom Service Supervisor (1984) and information Technology Center (1999), she retired after 30 years of service and retired from Burlington Coat Factory after 6 years for service.