

Kyann Ralph is a young black 16-year-old female gospel singer who is inspired by many talents. She was born to her parents, Evangelist Patricia Ralph and Minister Denroy Ralph. At the age of 6 years old, Kyann often played church at home with her youngest brother, Denar, when he was 4 years old. During their duet worship church service, Kyann and her brother would praise God on many loud sounding cymbals: Denar being the piano player, guitar player, and background singer, while Kyann on the Chealo, beating Tumberines and singing with her melodious voice above all of the sounding instruments.

Kyann developed a high passion for singing later, at the age of 8, when she and her brother became duet ministers of the Music team in church on Sundays. This passion for the singing ministry pushed Kyann further to become active in her church Youth Choir, Christmas, Easter programs, school choir in Elementary, Middle and High School. Kyann ministers at many Concerts, Banquets, Nursing Homes, Hospitals and funerals. She is delighted when she puts a smile on the faces of seniors, and the bereaved at funerals.

Kyann's brother, Denar, now 14 years old, is a two-time Author and entrepreneur but is still her back up singer and keyboard player. Kyann along with Denar, are the CEO and founders of Mission Three-Six-Teens Inc, Global Relief Youth Ministry. In December 2017, they both collected and contributed eleven barrels of goods to the victims of hurricane Irma disaster, which totally destroyed the island of Barbuda. Both Kyann and Denar, along with their parents, traveled to the island where they distributed the goods to the victims. They were honored by the Prime Minister of the island and the Speaker of the House of Parliament. Kyann's journey never ceased to end. Kyann and her brother Denar, carried out their Second mission relief trip one year later, December 2018, where they collected and distributed school supplies for needy children, adult pampers and other medical supplies for the elderly in Antigua.

Kyann believes that God gave her a special gift to spread the gospel through her singing. Now Kyann at age 16 years old, will release her first gospel CD on April 18, 2020. Her favorite song on the Album is "Born to Shine" written by her Mother. Kyann's love for God is rich. Her favorite scripture is Jeremiah 1:5, "Before I formed thee in the belly, I Knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb, I sanctified thee and ordained thee". She is convinced that not only she is born to shine, but she is a vessel used by God to inspire, motivate and reach souls for the kingdom of God.
